

Timmons' Maryland Homeland

Around 1680 William Timmons emigrated from England to the colony of Maryland where, in 1687, he received a grant of land. (See http://www.steen-frost.org/Pub/Docs/Timmons_files/1687_Wm_Timmons_Grants.pdf for a transcript of this grant.) The maps on this page show the location of this Timmons Homeland. The old map on the left is from Timmons & Tanner: Building an American Heritage (William Morgan Brown, 2006); the modern map, from Google Maps, shows the same area as it appears today.
